SCHOLARSHIP CONDITIONS OF APPLICATION

1. The information requested in the application form will be used for assessment purposes. All personal information collected during the application process may be made available to members of the Selection Committee for the particular award.
2. The Scholarships Office undertakes to store all applications in a secure place and to disclose the information requested in the application form only to those persons involved in the selection of candidates.
3. The Scholarships Office will normally hold documents about successful applicants for the period of the award. Documents for unsuccessful applicants will normally be kept for six weeks after the award has been made and then destroyed. Unsuccessful candidates may request that their materials, other than information supplied by a third party (see 5 below), be returned to them, rather than be destroyed. The request must be made within one month of the announcement of the award.
4. Consistent with the provisions of the Privacy Act applicants have the right of access to information held about them. Applicants also have the right to request the correction of information held about them.
5. Information about an applicant from other parties, e.g. personal reference, which is supplied by a referee or other person on a confidential basis, will not be made available to the applicant.
6. In order to honour successful applicants the Scholarships Office may disclose limited information (typically the award, your name and field of study) about successful applicants to the sponsor of the award, the University of Auckland Council, Graduation office, Calendar office, The University Society, External Relations office and Faculties. If your application is successful, by signing this form you have authorised the University to release limited details to the parties mentioned above. If for any reason information about you cannot be released as indicated, you must complete the portion of the declaration (see 9 below) provided for this. In some cases a candidate may be ineligible for an award if the personal information required cannot be made available to persons outside the University.
7. Applicants must have read the Regulations for the award for which they are applying before signing this declaration. The signed declaration is the applicant's acknowledgement that they understand and agree to be bound by the conditions under which the award is made.

8. DECLARATION

I, (name) _____ (student ID) _____ agree to the above conditions with respect to my application for a scholarship/award/bursary administered through the Scholarships Office at the University of Auckland. I authorise the Scholarships Office staff to verify any details provided in my application. Furthermore I authorise the University to disclose to the Scholarships Office Support staff such details about my academic progress, employment within the university and any further details required to confirm that, during the period in which I receive any award, I continue to satisfy the terms and conditions for the award.
